My Little Mite.

I like sister Edmond's suggestion in No. 8, for one thousand sisters to give one dollar each toward paying Ashland College debt, how very easily this could be done. If we all had a mind to, especially those who have set apart some Missionary hens, of which sister Beal spoke about some time ago. In this section of country these hens are already on duty. Of course here in southern Kansas these hens being earlier than in some other parts of the country.

Now my dear sisters, this time of the season it don't take very many of these eggs to bring one dollar, so let us begin at once and we will soon have some of those round dollars rolling toward Ashland to help bring that greatly desired end into effect, which so many brethren and sisters have been so anxious to see. Now brethren and sisters, I think one more long, hard pull, if we will all pull together, will accomplish the work, brethren don't forget brother Holsinger's Proclamation.

Notes from Virginia.

In the notice for a Va., State Convention, the writer neglected to state that at said convention a Secretary and Treasurer should be voted for. Churches voting for an Evangelist should also vote for Secretary and Treasurer.

Our pastor, Eld. E. B. Shaver has done a noble work within the last seven months. We organized at Tom's Brook with thirty-four members, three of these have since connected themselves with the Providence congregation. The whole number baptized at intervals during seven months is fifty; seventeen came by relation, which makes sixty-seven in all. Of these, Bro. R. F. Mallott was the instrument of bringing fifteen. Besides the above, Bro. Shaver and Bro. John Duke Mc Faden were the instruments of bringing fourteen into the church in the Providence congregation. Of course Bro. Shaver had the prayers and exhortations of brethren George Rinker, and Jacob his son; also Bro. John W. Leedy.

Bro. Shaver has done all this without any financial aid from any one. He is a good workman badly treated.

Brethren, we ought to have a better representation of ourselves in the annual for 1887. I see only one church reported from Va., when I know of four, and I know three ministers whose names are not in the ministerial list. We ought certainly do better than this.

I notice quite a number of correspondents from Va. in the last few No's of the EVANGELIST, David Rienhart, W. F. Rippeto, A. Trobaugh and Maggie Kittenhouse, I am a stranger to these. The names of C. Nininger and Julia A. Wood I have both seen and heard. Bro. R. S. Pangle, I am well acquainted with.

The names of several children from Va., too, have lately appeared in the EVANGELIST. This is truly gratifying to see children giving their time to something lasting.

In case the whole amount required to liquidate the College debt, can not be raised before the first of April, could not Bro. Holsinger or some one else negotiate a loan from some well-to-do person, until Bro. Holsinger can secure the amount needed by subscribtion? The College ought to be saved if only money is needed.

Georgia's latest curiosity is a chicken with but one wing. It is eight months old, and was hatched so.

Many ladies admire gray hair—on some other person—but few care to try its effects on their own charms. Nor need they, since Ayer's Hair Vigor restors gray hair to its original color. It cleanses the scaly, prevents dandruff, and stimulates the growth of the hair as in youth.

"What are pauses?" asked the teacher of the primary class. "Things that grow on cats," piped the small boy at the foot.

I was laid up with rheumatism about six weeks, suffering greatly. I was recommended to try Athlopheros, which I did to the extent of three bottles. I am now perfectly well. Captain Henry Dornbusch, insurance agent, 924 East Fifth street, Dayton, Ohio.

No other preparation so concentrates and combines blood-purying, vitalizing, enriching invigorating qualities as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Quality should be considered when making comparisons.

J. H. Wishek started on horseback to take a day's journey in McIntosh county, Dakota. A blizzard swooped down on him, he lost his way, and stood behind his horse all night and with his pistol kept off a pack of prairie wolves. When day broke he found that he was within a few hundred yards of the house he was seeking.

Recently, at Atlanta, Ga., a son of David W. Henderson, a street car driver, lost his leg by being run over by a car on which his father held the reins. Henderson's son now sues the company for $10,000 damages.

SAVED FROM DEATH OR MADNESS.

John MacGreevy is the ticket agent of the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio R. R. at Springfield, O., and as such is well known to its citizens and the travelers whom business or inclination may call to that pleasant and enterprising city. Mr. MacGreevy is a happy man, not because any great fortune has been left him nor because he sees any immediate prospect of rising to the presidency of the corporation which he faithfully serves, but because his wife has been restored to health after years of almost living death. Mrs. MacGreevy's complaint was neuralgia and her case was said by those competent to know to have been as severe as it could be without causing death. Athlophoros was the remedy which came as a God-send to Mrs. MacGreevy, giving her back health and strength. Her own account of her sufferings and cure shows how great must have been the agony she endured. She says:

"For four long years I was a victim of neuralgia. Each succeeding year it seemed to gradually grow worse with more frequent attacks. Two years ago last February I was taken with the most severe pain of all. For months I suffered the greatest agony. I was nearly frantic with the suffering and had to be held to keep me from pulling my hair out by the roots from the top of my head, where most of the pain was seated. I did not know what sleep was, except such little as I got by the use of morphine. I cannot describe my terrible agony in words. To say that I felt as if a red hot knife had been placed on my head would perhaps partly describe my pain. The strain on my nervous system was so great that it affected the nerves of my eyes and I was totally blind in both for a week. For a long time afterwards I could only see with one eye.

"I begged my people to kill me. Oh, I thought, if I could only die what sweet relief it would be. It was at this fearful stage of the disease and after medical aid seemed to be exhausted in its power to give relief that I began using Athlophoros. It was magical in its work. I felt some relief after I had taken two doses, and when I had taken a half bottle I went down stairs. In two weeks after I began using the medicine I was able to walk out, and I was never confined to my room or bed after that. I kept right on using the medicine until I had used twelve bottles. My case was such a severe one that I wanted to be sure and get the disease completely out of my system."

"Where did you first hear of Athlophoros, Mrs. MacGreevy?"

"My father," she replied, "picked up a pamphlet at our door, in which was an account of some of the cures it had made."

"Did you get the medicine at once?"

"No; not immediately, as I was under the doctor's care at that time, but shortly afterwards. Finding that I was growing worse instead of better my father went to the druggist's and bought a bottle of Athlophoros."

"It probably saved your life, did it not?"

"It either saved my life or saved me from being a raving maniac, for I could not have endured the mental strain much longer. I never can say or do too much for the medicine. I have always said that since it did so much for me I would be perfectly willing to have my case and name stated to the public, so that others who were afflicted as I was may be induced to use Athlophoros."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed. ATHLOPHOROS Co., 112 Wall Street, New York.

results from that true contentment which indicates perfect health of body and mind. You may possess it, if you will purify and invigorate your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. E. M. Howard, Newport, N. H., writes: "I suffered for years with Scrofulous humors. After using two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I great relief. It has entirely restored me to health." James French, Atchison, Kans., writes: "To all persons suffering from Liver Complaint, I would strongly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with a disease of the liver for nearly two years, when a friend advised me to take this medicine. It gave prompt relief, and has cured me." Mrs. H. M. Kidder, 41 Dwight st., Boston, Mass., writes: "For several years I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family. I never feel safe, even without it. As a liver medicine and general purifier of the blood, it has no equal." Mrs. A. B. Allen, Winterpock, Va., writes: "My youngest child, two years of age, was taken with Bowel Complaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but he continued to grow worse, and finally became so reduced in flesh that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Scrofula might be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of and commenced giving it to him. It surely worked wonders, for, in a short time, he was completely cured."

Our readers will find an important new Advertisement of Dr. Peter Fahrney, on another page, which merits careful reading. It will appear only one time. It advertises a medicine which has been extensively used for a number of years, and which has given the proprietor quite a reputation. We invite special attention to the "poster" to which reference is made in the advertisement. It is a handsome Engraving, substantially mounted, with a fine Century Plant in the middle and a column of reading matter on each side. The Medicines of Dr. Fahrney are usually sold by agents, and not by the regular druggists. Dr. Fahrney has established a good reputation as a professional and business man and those who desire to give his Remedies a trial need not hesitate to trust him. Carefully read the advertisement. —The Church Advocate.

This book of 284 pages contains a verbatim report of an oral discussion between Eld. S. H. Bashor, of the Brethren Church, and Eld. Wm. Dillion, of the United Brethren Church, on the following propositions, Viz.

I—That trine immersion is the only mode of baptism taught or practiced by Christ or His Apostles and the primitive church.

II—That baptism as commanded by Christ and practiced by the Apostles is for the remission of sins.

III—That feet-washing is not an ordinance of the house of God to be practiced in connection with the Lord's Supper and communion, and was not thus practiced by the Apostles and the primitive church.

IV—That the Lord's Supper is a full meal, to be eaten in the evening of the day only.

Dillon affirms the third, and Bashor the first second and fourth propositions.

All who desire light on these questions should posess a copy of this book.

Either of the above books will be mailed prepaid at the retail price, or sent by express not prepaid at the dozen price.

A discount allowed to agents, and also to congregations wishing to supply their meeting houses with Hymnodies.
